FORWARDLY ATTACK ON YOUNG GIRL

Miss Esther Stone Struck Down and Her Jaw Broken While Coming From Logan.

OGDEN, July 29.—According to the statement of Miss Esther Stone, who resides at the home of Mrs. Wilson Johnson, 152 Twenty-eighth street, the brutal blow which broke and dislocated her jaw Monday night "was not an accidental one, as at first reported, but was deliberately aimed at her by the man who delivered it." Miss Stone was injured while riding on a Bamberger train, from Logan on a Bamberger train, and was rendered unconscious by the blow. She has been confined to her bed since through nervous shock, but she is now better and able to talk. She states that her assailant resides at Logan, and that she knew him at Logan, and that she was with him, and brought him to Ogden, where he was leaving her. In weight she would not tip the scales at more than one hundred pounds. According to her story the man who struck her must have weighed nearly twice as much as she.

"I was in company with Miss Rubie Stanford," said Miss Stone, "not hesitating to tell the story of how the attack in which she was the victim happened. 'We were coming home from Logan on the last car. There was a young man with us, a friend of Miss Stanford. The car was rather crowded and there was considerable jostling, but no reason why any one should have considered this the fault of the passengers. Two young ladies of the passengers changed their places in the car, and as the girls passed one of them stepped on my foot."
"It rather hurt me and I said to my girl friend, 'I wonder why she wouldn't excuse herself.' I was not angry and did not make the remark thinking that the girl passing would hear. She heard the remark, turned around and called both of us girls a violent name. Miss Stanford arose from her seat and said that she would not stand for being insulted.
At this the girl who had called us the names seized Miss Stanford's hat and tore it from her head. My chum struck at the girl, but was beaten down in the seat by both of the girls.
I tried to assist my friend, and it was then that the man who was with the girls struck me. I saw him aim his flat at me and then I lost consciousness. I did not recover my senses until I was at the Bamberger depot in this city."

"My jaw was dislocated by the blow from the man's fist, and an X-ray picture of it was taken by the physician who met it. I have not been able to get out of the house since the affair and don't know just what action I will take in the matter. I am pretly certain that the two girls and the man who hit me live in Layton. I think that I know the girls' names, but I am not sure, so I won't tell them now."

George A. Croft. Some rather damaging evidence has been brought out placing the responsibility upon the Utah Light & Railway company, for placing its high tension wires in too close proximity to the telephone wires.
The investigation will probably last several days. The leading attorneys of the telephone and light companies are in attendance and it will be a hard fought battle.

THIEVES AND PICKPOCKETS BUSY AT FAIR GROUNDS

OGDEN, July 29.—As Aleck Taylor was leaving one of the Rapid Transit cars at the Fair grounds last night, some one attempted to pick his pocket.
He called for assistance, and Sheriff Barlow Wilson, who was on the car, came to his rescue. Frank O'Neill was seen to break from the crowd and start to run, but halted after the sheriff fired one shot. He was arrested and locked in the county jail. Taylor's pocketbook was found intact on the platform of the car.

David Russell, one of the spectators at the sparring contest, reported to the police last night that his pocketbook, containing $5, had been taken while sitting at the ringside. A runabout automobile, No. 903, belonging to Luke Crawshaw, which had been left on the Fair grounds, was stolen during the fight. The auto was found this morning by a Deseret News collector.
Later Roland Pearson, a youth of 15, was arrested for stealing the auto, and the evidence against him is pretty strong.

CANAL CEMENTING JOB GOES TO SALT LAKERS

More Than Quarter Million to be Expended by Davis and Weber Counties Canal People.

OGDEN, July 29.—At a recent meeting of the Weber and Davis Counties Canal company, it was decided to push to a completion the improvements of its canal. These will involve the expenditure of more than a quarter of a million dollars in cementing its great irrigating ditch from the intake at the mouth of Weber canyon on to the sand ridge, where the first main branches are diverted.

The Gilbert Construction company of Salt Lake has been given the contract.
It calls for the concreting of five miles of the ditch, both bottom and sides and involves an expenditure of $150, 000. A similar amount will be spent in other improvements looking to the prevention of the loss by seepage along the canal.

Today the contracting firm began hauling gravel to the point where the work is to commence, and by the last of August, when the irrigating season is practically over, the water will be turned back to Weber river and the concreting will begin.

When it is finished the company will have six miles of canal with the 12 per cent seepage entirely eliminated, and the water capacity increased from 210 to 425 second feet. The canal will be 84 feet wide on top, 26 feet on the bottom and six feet deep.

It is estimated that 350 carloads of cement will be used in the work, and 30,000 wagon loads of gravel. The contract will employ 400 men on the job.

Last fall the company built half a mile of concrete ditch by way of experiment. The present big undertaking are the outcome.

Thirty years ago the Weber-Davis Counties Canal company, composed of farmers in that region, was capitalized at 4,000 shares of stock, worth $12 each. Today there are 6,000 shares, quoted at $150 a share.

OLSEN GETS BAIL

OGDEN, July 29.—Hoken Olsen, the notorious "blind tiger" king of Huntsville, who was recently sentenced by Judge Howell to serve four months in the county jail and pay a fine of $250, has been released on $500 bonds pending the hearing of the case by the supreme court. The order releasing Olsen was written by Justice Frick of the supreme court. The bond was signed by Ole Olsen and Henry Wessler.

ANSWER IN NOTE CASE.

OGDEN, July 29.—In the case of Carl C. Rasmussen, receiver of the Superior Brick, Tile and Milling company against John J. Greiner, the defendant has filed an answer claiming that the condition of the brick company was greatly misrepresented to him at the time he signed a note to purchase 1,000 shares at the par value of $1 each. Greiner alleges that F. P.
Johnson, president of the company, made false statements of the company's assets when he was induced to buy the stock. He made a payment of $100 to Johnson and later paid $233.
27 to the Utah National bank, to whom his note was transferred.

L. W. BROWN SUE FOR DIVORCE

OGDEN, July 29.—Alleging that her husband has failed to provide herself and child with the necessities of life for the past year, Minnie L. Brown has brought suit for divorce in the district court for divorce from L. W.
Brown, whom she married in Salt Lake City, June 27, 1909. Mrs. Brown claims that her husband has an earning capacity of $100 per month.
There is a minor child of whom plaintiff asks the custody. She also petitions for $50 attorney's fees, reasonable alimony and costs of the action.

WELCOME RAIN.

OGDEN, July 29.—The rain storm of Wednesday night and Thursday morning was the first storm enjoyed in this locality since last spring and was greatly appreciated. To the many growers of tomatoes, the storm was a providential one as it practically saved the crops. The rain also did much good to the orchards of the county and every grower is rejoicing at the timely downpour.

OGDEN POLICE COURT.

OGDEN, July 29.—"Dutch" Harry, alias E. C. Dittman, was arraigned in police court on Thursday on the charge of assault alleged to have been committed about midnight on July 22 when Dittman threw a hard boiled egg and struck Dave Morby, a street car conductor, in the eye. The testimony was ludicrous in the extreme. Dittman, who is a waiter at a Twenty-fifth street cafe, received an order from Joseph Cave for two hard boiled eggs to be delivered at once.
While the waiter was procuring the eggs, Cave's car came along and he boarded it. At this moment Dittman ran from the cafe and seeing Cave on the car, who was holding his hands as if to catch the eggs, Dittman took a chance to serve his rash order and threw them. The first egg was luckily caught by Cave but unluckily in the words of Morby, "I caught the second one in the eye." The court was in an uproar during the hearing and everyone present laughed till the tears came down the cheeks of Dittman who could not see through the joke. The court dismissed the action, admonishing the defendant to be more careful in future in his method of filling rush orders. The city attorney was ordered to file a lengthy brief on the case.

George Hughes was discharged after testimony was taken in the case charging him with begging.

John Schiesl was fined $10 bail for disturbing the peace.

Three more gamblers, John F.
Smith, J. L. Sanders and J. W. Caldwell, were ordered to pay their regular monthly "dues" for "unlawful gambling."

Ether Smith forfeited $10 bail on the charge of vagrancy.

The case of William Scheffler, charged with disturbing the peace, was continued till Monday.

L. Lang and Fred Snowden, charged with a revolting crime, were held to answer to the district court under bail in the sum of $500 and $200 respectively.

Louisa Johnson, colored, was sent to jail for ten days for vagrancy.

William Beck and Rheinbold, Makken, charged with the theft of 10 bars of silver lead bullion valued at $52, were on hand for a continuation of their preliminary hearing but owing to other business, the case was continued.

FAILED TO CLIMB MOUNT MCKINLEY

Party Led by C. E. Rusk, and Which Followed Cook's Route, Didn't Reach the Summit.

DIDN'T SEE THE LLOYD FLAG.

Seattle Mountaineers Have Faith in Lloyd and Believe He Made Ascent.

Seward, Ala., July 28.—The Portland Oregonian-New York Herald Mount McKinley expedition, headed by C. E.
Rusk of Chelan, Wash., which sailed from Seattle on the revenue cutter Tahoma April 24, and which followed Dr.
Cook's route up the Suistna and Chilitna rivers, failed to reach the summit of Mount McKinley and is now on the way back to Seward.

The climbers ascended the peak alleged by Dr. Cook to be the summit, but it is 10 miles from the topmost point of the mountain. The Rusk party were unable to see the flag which the Thomas Lloyd party are alleged to have planted on the summit last April, and are disinclined to believe the story told by the Fairbanks expedition.

The party, headed by Prof. Herschel Parker of New York University, Belmore Brown of Tacoma, is still endeavoring to ascend the mountain.

This news was brought to Seward today by W. McDougall, president of the Cachoe Creek Mining company, who met the Rusk party a few days ago at Suistitna station.

SEATTLE MOUNTAINEERS HAVE FAITH IN LLOYD

Seattle, Wash., July 28.—It is the contention of Thomas Lloyd and other Alaskan mountaineers that Mount Mc-Kinley cannot be climbed from the Cook inlet side at any time, and that it can be ascended from the Fairbanks side only in the spring, while the snow is hard and the crevasses in the great glaciers are bridged by the snow. In the summer the crevasses are perilous.

The disappearance of the flag from the summit of Mount McKinley was to have been expected, they say, on account of the high wind that sweeps over the peak.

Asabel Curtis of Seattle, a celebrated mountain climber, had not expected any summer expedition to succeed. He says that Rusk has no superior as a mountain climber, and if Rusk could not succeed in summer no one can.
Mr. Curtis believes Thomas Lloyd's story of the ascent, as do all the members of the Seattle Mountaineers' club.
Lloyd is a wealthy man of high reputation, and has made no effort to exploit his feat for financial gain.

Maj. E. S. Ingram of Seattle, who climbed Mount St. Elias with the Duke of the Abruzzi, says that if he were to attempt to ascend Mount McKinley he would establish a camp in autumn at the base of the mountain and make a dash for the summit in the spring, while the crevasses are sealed.

Besides Mr. Rusk there are in his party A. L. Cool of Chelan, Wash., a trapper; Joseph Fidler, a Mount Baker forest ranger, and F. H. Rojac of Portland, Or., photographer.

HOPKINS SKEPTICAL ABOUT CORRUPTION STORY

Denver, Colo., July 28.—Former United States Senator Albert J. Hopkins, who was in Denver today, expressed skepticism regarding the story printed in Chicago that a corruption fund had been formed in Springfield among certain Democrats to vote for him for senator.

"I don't know anything about the charge," said the former senator. "I have taken no interest in politics since my defeat. You will notice the story says some of my friends organized the 'jackpot' without my knowledge. Certainly I never knew of the existence of such a fund and I frankly say that I doubt the entire story. The deadlock in the legislature continued from January 21 to May 26, and it is hardly probable that such an attempted proceeding could remain clouded in secrecy for four months."

"There may be a motive behind the story," continued Mr. Hopkins. "Bay-ling for its design the clouding of the investigation and trial of the Lorimer bribery case. Certainly Mr. Lorimer secured his seat by the most disreputable and scandalous methods ever witnessed in this country."

"Roger Sullivan, the Democratic leader, and Shurtliff, the speaker of the house, were strong supporters of Lorimer and, I understand, still maintain their relations with him."

Mr. Hopkins called on Gov. Shafroth today to renew the acquaintance formed when they were both members of Congress.

ROOSEVELT MAY CAMPAIGN IN OHIO

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 28.—Before Theodore Roosevelt launches out again into the troubled sea of national politics he will scan the chart with those of his friends who already have tested the temper of the storm.

The colonel's reticence of last night continues today. He repeated that he was unwilling to comment on the action of the Ohio Republican state convention until he had received reports from men who were on the ground, but he added that these men will be. They are James R. Garfield, and Wade H.
Ellis, chairman of the Ohio Republican committee.

Mr. Ellis, it is thought, will ask Col. Roosevelt to stump Ohio for the ticket nominated yesterday. He repeatedly would not say tonight whether he will accept. The colonel already has agreed to speak in Cincinnati on Sept. 9, but it is unlikely he will venture on stunts such as these.

Gifford Pinchot, now en route for New York, will bring back word of how the west feels toward conservation. The colonel inquired today with considerable interest when Mr. Pinchot was due to return.

CAVALIERI OPERATED ON FOR APPENDICITIS

Paris, July 28.—Mrs. Robert Winthrop Chanler, who is Mme. Lena Cavaliere on the operatic stage, underwent an operation for appendicitis today. The attending doctors stated that she bore the operation well and they believe it would be entirely successful.

Mrs. Chanler has suffered from chronic appendicitis which has several times developed into the acute form.
